The Feast of the Epiphany commemorates the coming of the three kings to the birthplace of Christ-child. It matters little whether it took them twelve days or twelve years. What matters is the meaning. It means that Jesus is born to save all people, not just us church-goers. The story of the three kings also reminds us how "far" some men must go to find their Saviour.

This is also the day of our door-to-door visitation and it is hoped that this will in some way show the outreach of the Lord to His people.

Next Sunday, January 20th, we will observe Theological Education Sunday. The preacher on this occasion will be the Rev. Churchill J. Gibson, Sr., a member of the board of Trustees of the Virginia Theological Seminary in Alexandria. Special offering envelopes will be provided. Do not feel you must give. You were asked to pledge sacrificially and this might mean you can't give any more. On the other hand, there may be those who have not pledged, and others who do want to make a special offering at this time.
